

MANAGEMENT TRAINING PROGRAM SITUATIONAL AND DELEGATION

Adopt Situational Management & Master the Art of Delegation

Are you a manager, team leader, or department head? This training will help you adapt your management style to each situation and empower your employees through effective delegation. A must-have for developing leadership and operational efficiency.

Educational objectives

- Distinguishing between the roles of leader and manager
- Adapt your management style according to the maturity of your employees
- Developing empowering and effective delegation

Target audience & prerequisites

Target audience:

- Frontline managers
- Team leaders
- Department Heads

Prerequisites

No specific requirements. Prior management experience is recommended.

Duration & Terms

- Duration: 1 day (7 hours)
- Format: In-person
- Frequency: Inter-company or intra-company sessions
- Location: On site
- Price: Upon request
- Access time: The minimum access time is 48 hours.
and up to 1 month, depending on the opening of the sessions

Training content

1. Leadership vs. Management:

Understanding the key roles of managers and leaders

2. Situational Management (Hersey & Blanchard model)

Adapt your style according to the maturity of the employee

3. Successfully delegating

Define, frame and effectively monitor delegated tasks

Teaching methods

- Theoretical contributions illustrated
- by real-life case studies
- Managerial self-assessment
- Practical scenarios
- Sharing in subgroups

Evaluation & Certification

- Immediate feedback
(satisfaction)
- Practical application file
- Certificate of completion of training issued

The trainer

Professional specializing in team management, leadership and managerial skills development.

Accessibility

This training is accessible to people with disabilities. Contact our disability liaison for any requests for accommodations.

For more information: support@marvestingacademy.com

Contact & registration

Email: support@marvestingacademy.com

